The schooner Libby arrived October 24th from Punaluu, Hawaii, with old iron.
The bark Birmah has been moved near the Pacific Mail Company's wharf, where she is now unloading cargo.
The bark Hope was docked at the Fort-street wharf yesterday to discharge her cargo of lumber.
The Norwegian bark Vikar sailed October 24th for Puget Sound.
The steamers Likelike, Mikahala and James Moke will leave this afternoon for their respective ports.

The steamer Wailalea is due to-day from Kauai.

The steamer Surprise takes 62,000 feet of lumber for fumes for various plantations at Hilo, Hawaii.

The barkentine S. N. Castle was hauled on the Marine Railway yesterday to be coated with copper paint.

The Hawaiian steamship Australia, Captain H. C. Houdlette, sails at noon to-day with a full cargo, consisting of sugar, rice, bananas, hides, etc., for San Francisco.

The steamer W. G. Hall will arrive this afternoon from Maui and Hawaii with sugar.

The schooner Walehu brought 365 bags sugar from Wailua, Oahu, October 24th.

The schooner Walehu brought 30 head cattle from Makaweli, Kauai, last Sunday. She leaves again to-day for the same place.

The American bark Alden Bessie, Captain O'Brien, anchored off port October 24th, 25½ days from Victoria, with a cargo of lumber and several Chinese passengers in transit for Hongkong.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The Australia leaves at noon.

Good-bye Lula, Pauline and Elise. Come again.

The steamer W. G. Hall is due this afternoon.

Post your letters in plenty of time this morning.

The Consuelo brought two hundred and fifty hogs.

The Honolulu Rifles had battalion drill on Palace Square last evening.

Fifteen lepers were sent to Molokai last evening by the steamer Lehua.

The breach of promise case will not be reached until Wednesday morning.

There were a large number of South Sea Islanders looking around town yesterday.

Captain George H. Luce has been re-commissioned as Tax Collector for Honolulu.

It is reported that a Scotch syndicate have purchased 20 cargoes of Java sugar at the cost of $400,000.

The members of St. Peter's Guild are requested to be present at the regular monthly meeting this evening.

The Custom House closed at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon out of respect to the memory of John M. Kapena.

By the Colonial mail we learn that the Rev. Thomas Blackburn of Woodville, near Adelaide, formerly of Honolulu, has had an addition to his family in the shape of a son.

Last Friday night an elegant luau was given by Hon. W. H. and Mrs. Rice at their residence, Nuuanu Avenue, in honor of Mrs. Banning, Mrs. J. P. Cooke and the nineteenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Waterhouse Jr.

Monsieur Georges Boulech, Chanceller of the French Legation, has received a similar appointment at Malta. He will be succeeded by Monsieur Vanucci, from Charleston, South Carolina, who is expected to arrive on the next mail steamer.

In justice to Mr. J. W. Yarnley we would say that Mr. H. W. Morse has been his pupil since his residence in Honolulu, and he certainly deserves the highest credit for his excellent method of teaching. As a teacher of vocal music Mr. Yarnley stands in the front rank.

The "Bulletin" states that Mr. A. M. Hewitt is temporarily absent from business, owing to an accident which has caused injury to his collar-bone. While riding along Nuuanu Avenue, Mr. Hewitt's horse came in contact with a rope by which another horse was tethered in the roadway. Mr. Hewitt was thrown to the ground, with the result above stated. He hopes to be able to resume business in a short while.

Signor Roselli.

We are sorry that Signor Roselli, the baritone has not had an opportunity to display his capabilities in English or Italian opera during his stay here. He is perfectly at home on the stage, and feels out of place on the concert platform. He leaves to-day on the Australia, and it is probable that he will remain in San Francisco for some time, as an offer has been made him to sing in opera there. If we mistake not he will make a hit. He has made many friends in this city during his brief stay, all of whom will wish him a pleasant voyage and a successful future.

Funeral of John M. Kapena.

The funeral of the late John Makini Kapena took place yesterday afternoon from St. Andrew's Cathedral at 3 o'clock. The remains were carried from the hearse to the church of the church. On the coffin were a large number of most beautiful floral tributes. The church was well filled with friends and acquaintances of the deceased. Among those present were His Majesty the King, H. R. H. Princess Liliuokalani, His Excellency J. O. Dominis, Governor of Oahu, Hon. A. S. Cleghorn, Colonel C. P. Iaukea, H. M.'s Chamberlain, and Mrs. Iaukea, Bishop of Honolulu and Mrs. Willis, Hon. Antonio Ross, Hon. J. L. Kaulukou, Major C. T. Gulick, Viscount Torie and Mr. T. Fujita of the Japanese Legation, Hon. J. M. Kawaiuni, Colonel J. H. Boyd and members of Hawaiian Lodge, No. 21, F. and A. M.

The service, which was entirely in Hawaiian, was read by the Rev. Alexander Mackintosh. The Rev. H. H. Gowen was also in the church. The hymn, "Nearer, My God, to Thee," was sung and then the coffin was carried to the hearse and the procession moved to Kaiwiahao Cemetery, where the final interment took place. The chief mourner was Leihulu, the deceased's daughter.

Death of C. W. Clark.

Yesterday afternoon, about 3 o'clock, Mr. Charles Warren Clark died rather suddenly of heart disease, at his residence, Liliha street. He was at work up to noon, but not feeling well went to his doctor. The latter gave him some medicine which he took on arriving home. He died at the hour mentioned above without a struggle.

The deceased was born at Portland, Maine, August 28, 1828, consequently at the time of his death was 59 years, 1 month and 26 days old. He came to the Islands on a whaler about the year 1850, and for twelve years worked at the carpentering business. He built the Ewa Church and also a number of buildings at Wailanae. He gave this up and entered the employ of Castle & Cooke, driving their wagon for about twelve years. He next bought out a draying business, and after running it for several years sold it to Geo. H. Robertson. Later he has been running a baggage express for Hustace & Robinson. He was well known and much respected. He was never off the Islands from the time he landed. The deceased leaves a widow and two children—Mrs. J. H. Black and Charles H. Clark, to mourn his loss.

The funeral takes place this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from his late residence, Liliha street. The remains will be interred in the Kawaiahao Cemetery.

It is Said

That the Australia leaves at noon, sharp, to-day; that the Rifles had battalion drill last night; that the tug Pele would make a good duck house; that the local bard will have to look to his laurels now that "Reef Orme" has gone into the business; that birds of a feather flock together; that there will be quite a musical party leaving on the Australia; that they will give entertainments during the voyage if they do not get seasick; that Christmas is coming, and so is the electric light; that this is the last week of the October term; that the local method of making floral sacrifices to persons on the stage will be abolished by the Legislature; that there was a fine musicale at Kalihi last evening; that a Japanese woman prefers to go to prison for life rather than return to her husband; that Mr. Yarnley ought to start a choral society; that Mr. Caswell, the piano-tuner, is in town; that there will be a number of applicants for the position of Secretary of the Legislature; that a member of the Rifles won't get it; that there will be a Chinese wedding on Thursday; that an "inspired" item says the session of the Legislature will last from three weeks to two months.

Aloha.

Mrs. Joran and her talented daughters, Lula, Pauline and Elise, leave on the Australia to-day for San Francisco, carrying with them many warm alohas. During their stay here they have given us a most delightful series of concerts and have charmed every one who attended them with their brilliant performances of the works of the great masters. This is probably their last visit to Honolulu, though we hope not. They have made no plans for the future, and remain undecided as to their movements until after their arrival in San Francisco. Socially they have made hosts of friends. We join in wishing them a very pleasant voyage and much success in the future.

Musical.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Waller gave a most delightful musicale at their residence, Kalihi. They had invited a large number of their friends, who thoroughly enjoyed the occasion. Mrs. Waller, Mrs. Bowler, Signor Roselli, Mr. H. W. Morse and others sang, Mr. Myron H. Jones playing the accompaniments. After the musicale dancing was indulged in.

Reception to a Pastor.

The parlors of Fort-street Church were crowded last evening with the members of the congregation of the new Congregational Society, to welcome their new pastor, Rev. E. G. Beckwith, D. D., and his family to Honolulu. The parlors were profusely decorated with flowers and evergreens. Dr. Beckwith received a very cordial welcome from all present. The reception was followed with social intercourse and refreshments.

Rev. George Wallace.

By the last mail a letter was received from the Rev. George Wallace, dated Nashotah, Wisconsin, September 29th. Since he left Honolulu he has been moving about a great deal. He engaged to supply the services at St. John's Cathedral, Quincy, Illinois. Mr. Wallace has been invited to become rector of this church, but says he expects to come back to Honolulu. He is doubtful if he ever had a call to so large a parish and so beautiful a church again. Quincy has 35,000 people.

Mr. Wallace was to go East on October 1st, and during the first ten days of November expected to turn his face westward. Mrs. Wallace is still at Nashotah. Their daughter Madge has been placed at St. Mary's School, Knoxville, Ill.

Lecture on the Drama.

This evening, at the Y. M. C. A. Hall, a lecture on the Drama, by Mr. Walter M. Leman, will be delivered for the benefit of the funds of the association. From such an able pen there is no doubt the lecture will be exceedingly interesting. It will be read by Mr. S. B. Dole in consequence of Mr. Leman's blindness. The admission is only fifty cents and there should be a full house.
